

WHAT SORT OF ANTI

RACISM?

In Dublin's Teachers Club (36 Parnell Square) on Saturday September 25th, starting at 1pm.

A screening of 'Holiday Camp' a documentary on the Woomera Asylum Seeker camp break out will take place from nine in the same venue.

Ideas and Action

The Workers Solidarity Movement is hosting an event entitled "What Sort Of Anti-Racism Do We Need" in Dublin's Teachers Club (36 Parnell Square) on Saturday September 25th, starting at 1pm.

After the passing of the citizenship referendum, nobody can deny that racial prejudice is widespread in Ireland. Workers Solidarity Movement members, who were active in the Campaign Against the Racist Referendum, are hosting this meeting as a contribution to the discussion about how best to combat racism. Admission is free and everyone is welcome.

A Video Screening of 'Holiday Camp' will take place after the 'Ideas and Action' from nine in the Teachers Club. The pivotal action of this documentary is the detention centre breakout, which occurred as part of a five-day long direct action camp established next to the razor wire fences at Woomera, a detention centre for asylum seekers in Australia.

Holiday Camp reclaims the voices of the marginalised, and connects the issues of Indigenous dispossession, genocide, constructions of race and incarceration policies, which are often portrayed as unrelated. The film suggests that the policy of mandatory detention and raising of borders to protect fortresses of privilege make us all un-free.

Part of the Workers Solidarity Movement
Ideas and Action Series Of Workshops.

Contact us at: WSM, PO Box 1528, Dublin 8 or by email at wsm_ireland@yahoo.com or check us out online at <http://struggle.ws/wsm>

Time Table Of Work Shops and Discussions.

1pm	Welcome
1:30pm	The Origins of Racism. Where does it come from, is it natural, is it manufactured?
2:15pm	Experiences of racism in Ireland today. Immi-grant, migrant and traveller speakers invited.
3:00pm	Break.
3:15pm	Practical campaigning. Speakers from new initiatives on work permits and female genital mutilation.
4:00pm	Anti Racism. Groups. Residents Against Ra-cism, The Belfast Anti-Racist Network and the Fascists Out Campaign have been invited to talk about their aims and activities
4:45pm	Break
5:00pm	What Sort of Anti-Racism do we need? An open discussion about the sort of movement we need to build if we are to effectively com-bat racism.

Followed By:

A Video Screening of 'Holiday Camp' will take place after the 'Ideas and Action' from nine in the Teachers Club. The pivotal action of this documentary is the detention centre breakout, which occurred as part of a five-day long direct action camp established next to the razor wire fences at Woomera, a detention centre for asylum seekers in Australia.

Holiday Camp reclaims the voices of the marginalised, and connects the issues of Indigenous dispossession, genocide, construc-tions of race and incarceration policies, which are often portrayed as unrelated. The film suggests that the policy of mandatory deten-tion and raising of borders to protect fortresses of privilege make us all un-free.